Applicant initiated this interview to discuss the last office action.
Applicant discussed and described the invention and specifically mentioned the "trust level worthiness" and how this is different.
Examiner explained his last office action with reference to cited prior art and how cited prior art does not teach "trust level worthiness".
Examiner and applicant also discussed the "trustworthiness level analysis" as explained in detail in specification and concluded that claim is not claiming those specific limitations and only claiming a general trust level.
